PCS scene of mock court session

BY JOAN SIMPKINS

The Potsdam Bar Association presented the first of a series of Mock Court Sessions and lectures at Potsdam Central School on October 18. This program was initiated by History teacher Robert Reagan. A criminal trial was staged lasting approximately two and half hours in the main gymnasium.

The Hon. Michael W. Duskas, St. Lawrence County Court Judge, presided. The prosecutor for the case was Jeremiah M. Hayes Esq., the Second Assistant District Attorney for St. Lawrence County. He was assisted by his partner in law, J. Neil Devine Esq. Richard V. Manning Esq., a partner in the law firm of Manning and Demarest, was the defense attorney. His assistant was David Demarest Esq., who was also the director-coordinator. Steven J. Easter Esq. was the commentator and court clerk and the stenographer was Terry Clark.

Students from PCS participated in the trial also. Matt Funes was the defendant, and Doug Keon and Albert Geiser were the witnesses. The names of the defendant, Sammy Sandstoner, and the witnesses, Louie Lush and Joe Turkey made the trial humorous and very enjoyable.

The crime that was dealt with in the criminal trial was unlawfully dealing with a minor. More specifically, the defendant was charged with giving one of the witnesses alcohol. After testimony by the defendant and both witnesses, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

"wattsie"

the late vince lombardi once said "individual commitment to a group effort makes a team work, a company work, a society work, a civilization work."

this statement typifies mrs. watts' contributions to potsdam central school, because she makes our school work.

her work with journalism students to make possible a school newspaper, with the girls' sports as a referee and coach, and principally with eleventh grade students as an english teacher has given the students of pcs a lifetime of memories. and now ..... "wattsie" is leaving.

Good luck in the future to the only girl who ever called me and asked her cousin-tutor she knew wasn't but somehow managed to make it right.

I hope we can hang in there a while.

Love Ya
Bill

Coach Has Mixed-Emotions As Son's Goal is Clincher

Oct. 29, 1976

by Boyd McKendrick
Times Sports Reporter

Coach Jim Rishe of Madrid-Waddington will long remember with mixed emotions the final game of the 1976 boys' soccer season as his Yellowjackets fell victim to Potsdam, 2-1, with his son scoring the winning goal for the Sandstoner team. Mike Rishe kicked in what was to be the key goal with eighteen seconds remaining in the second quarter. Kirk Mulkin had the assist including the first Sandstoner goal unassisted.

Lynn Blevins and Kirk Mulkin combined in goal for seventeen saves for the winners, while Tom Longshore had fourteen saves for Madrid. Jerry Smith with an assist from Joe Trathen scored for the Yellowjackets. Outstanding performances for Coach Joe Daniels' Sandstoners came from Charles Merriman and Dave Riggs.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The first meeting of the National Honor society was held on Oct. 1. The officers were elected at this meeting. Jean Campbell was elected president, Scott Mason was elected vice-president, Gay Hunter is the new secretary and David Riggs is the treasurer. In November a new group will be initiated into the NHS. On December 8, a covered dish supper is planned for all members.
